

WAR IS NOT ALL TRAGEDY AND FIGHTING AS THESE PICTURES SHOW

German artistes who were playing in Paris theatres at the outbreak of the war washing their linen in a French detention camp.

Children still play in the square before the Cathedral of Arras even though it is bombarded almost daily.

LEFT—FRENCH OFFICERS STUDYING WAR MAPS TWELVE FEET UNDER GROUND. RIGHT—PARIS COCHER FINDS A NEW USE FOR A GERMAN HELMET.

WOMEN VOLUNTEER WORKERS AT MRS. W. PAGET'S HOUSE MAKING SWABS AND TOWELS FOR THE HOSPITALS.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.